

I live in Newburgh NY, it's where Washington refused the Crown and let this country become a great nation. With this it also gave us rights as people to make choices, protected by the First Amendment and not by the NAB.